(2) A list of candidates shall be in the prescribed form; and the submission shall bear the signature of each person submitting the same together with his name and the serial number of his identification card:

Provided that if any such person is unable to sign his name, his mark, made against his name written by a justice of the peace, shall be deemed to be his signature for the purposes of this subsection but not for the purposes of section 45.

(3) A list of candidates shall set out the names, one below the other in the alphabetical order of the surnames, of persons not less in number than the number of persons to be elected as councillors and not more than such number plus ten, being persons who are qualified to be

(4) Each list of candidates shall be accompanied by a statutory declaration, in the prescribed form, by each person named therein as a candidate of his qualifications and consent, made before a justice of the peace, a commissioner of oaths or other person authorised by law to administer an oath in the place where the declaration is made.

(5) Each list of candidates shall bear a title selected by the persons by whom it is submitted.

(6) No person shall be a candidate on more than one list of candidates and no person shall be a signatory to more than one list.

(7) For the avoidance of doubt it is declared that a person may be a signatory to a list of candidates notwithstanding that he is named therein as a candidate.

Provided that if the list does not bear a title the returning officer may, if it seems to him just and proper to do so, instead of treating the list as defective, allocate a title thereto.

of his name;

(c) delete his name from each list on which it appears if the returning officer is satisfied that he consented to the inclusion of his name on more than one list.

(3) If the name of any person appears as a signatory to the submission of more than one list, his signature shall be inoperative on any list other than the one first delivered to the returning officer and the returning officer shall delete his name from every other list, and if by reason of such deletion it appears to the returning officer that any list is defective in that there remain less than the required number of signatories thereto, such list shall be treated as defective.

47. The representative and deputy representative of a list of candidates, or either of them, may, not later than the 20th day before election day, submit to the returning officer corrections of any defects in the list (whether or not those defects are defects which have been notified under section 46).

(4) If a candidate pays any election expenses except his personal expenses otherwise than by or through the election agent of his group of candidates he shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

Remuneration
agent.

110. So far as circumstances permit this Part shall apply to a claim for his remuneration by an election agent and to the payment thereof in like manner as if he were any other creditor; and if there is any dispute as to the amount due, such claim shall be a disputed claim within the meaning of the Part and dealt with accordingly.

Period for
payment of
expenses.

111. (1) Every claim against any candidate or against an election agent in respect of any expenses incurred on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of an election shall be sent to the election agent not later than the 14th day after the publication under section 101 of the results of the election.

(2) Any such claim as is specified in subsection (1) which is not sent to the election agent within the time therein prescribed shall be barred and not paid.

(3) An election agent who pays a claim in contravention of subsection (2) shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(4) All expenses incurred on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of the election shall be paid not later than the 28th day after the publication under section 101 of the results of the election.

(5) An election agent who makes a payment in contravention of subsection (4) shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(6) If an election agent disputes any claim received by him within the time limited by subsection (1) or if he refuses or fails to pay such claim within that period, such claim shall be deemed to be a disputed claim.

(7) A claimant may, if he thinks fit, bring an action for a disputed claim in any competent court; and anything paid by a candidate or by an election agent in pursuance of the judgment or order of the court shall be deemed to be paid within the time limited by subsection (1) and to be an exception from the provisions of this Part requiring claims to be paid by the election agent.

(8) The Court may, on application by the claimant or by a candidate or by an election agent and on cause shown to its satisfaction, by order give leave for the payment by a candidate or by an election agent of a disputed claim or for a claim in respect of expenses incurred on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of an election, notwithstanding that such claim was sent after the time limit prescribed by subsection (1) and notwithstanding the sending of such claim to a candidate and not to the election agent.

(9) Any sum specified in any order of the Court made under subsection (8) may be paid by a candidate or by an election agent and when paid in pursuance of such order shall be deemed to be paid within the time limited by subsection (1).

Exemption of act done in good faith from being illegal practice.

112. Where, on application made, it is shown to the Court by such evidence as to the Court seems sufficient that—

(a) any act of omission of any candidate or of any election agent or of any other agent or person, would, by reason of being a payment, contract, engagement, employment or hiring, or the incurring of an expense in excess of the maximum allowed, in contravention of any of the provisions of this Part pertaining thereto, be but for this section an illegal practice, payment, employment or hiring; and

(b) such act or omission arose from inadvertence or from accidental miscalculation or from some other reasonable cause of a like nature, and in any case did not arise from any want of good faith; and

(c) notice of the application has been published in one newspaper circulating in Guyana, and in the circumstances it seems to the Court to be just that such candidate, election agent and other agent or person, or certain of them should not be subject to any of the consequences under this Part for the act or omission, the Court may make an order allowing such act or omission to be an exception from the provisions of this Part which would otherwise make the same an illegal practice, payment, employment, hiring or an incurring of an expense in excess of the maximum allowed, and such candidate, election agent or other agent or person as the Court may specify in its order shall not be subject to any of the consequences under this Part for the act or omission.

Saving for creditors.

113. The provisions of this Part prohibiting certain payments and contracts for payments, and the payment of any sum and the incurring of any expense in excess of the prescribed maximum, shall not affect the rights of any creditor who when the contract was made or the expense incurred was ignorant that such contract, payment or expense was in contravention of this Part.

Prohibition of expenses not authorised by election agent.

114. (1) No expenses shall, with a view to promoting or procuring the election of a group of candidates, be incurred by any person other than the election agent of the group or by a person authorised in writing by him on account of—

(2) Any person other than an election agent or a person authorised in that behalf in writing by him who incurs expenses prohibited by subsection (1) shall be guilty of a corrupt practice.

Substitution of new petitioner on withdrawal of petition.

(2) If the proposed withdrawal is in the opinion of the Court the result of any agreement, terms or undertaking prohibited by section 166 or induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, the Court may by order direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner, and that, to the extent of the sum named in the security, the original petitioner and his surety shall be liable to pay the costs of the substituted petitioner.

(3) If no such order is made with respect to the security given by or on behalf of the original petitioner, security to the same amount as would be required in the case of a new petition and subject to the like conditions and to the same right of objection shall be given by or on behalf of the substituted petitioner within three days after the making of the order of substitution and before he proceeds with the petition; and if the substituted petitioner fails to comply with the provisions of this subsection the petition shall stand dismissed.

(b) any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election gives notice in the prescribed manner that he intends at the trial to apply to be admitted as a respondent, then at the trial of the petition, upon the Court being satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that circumstances have arisen that, if the original respondent (not being the Chief Election Officer or an election officer) were a councillor, would cause him to vacate his seat under section 40, the Court may admit such person as a respondent to oppose the petition:

Provided that the number of persons admitted under this subsection shall not exceed three.

(2) A respondent who has given the prescribed notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition shall not be allowed to appear or act as a party against the petition in any proceedings thereon.

(2) Where on an election petition the Court, on a scrutiny determines that the number of valid votes cast for any list of candidates differs from the number of votes upon which seats in the council were allocated to that list, the Court may order that the allocation of seats to that list be reviewed by the returning officer and that, on it appearing to the returning officer from such review that any seat was not allocated in accordance with section 99, such seat shall be reallocated by the returning officer in accordance with those provisions and the election of councillors shall be re-declared by the returning officer in accordance with section 100.

Avoidance of election for widespread corrupt or illegal practices.

173. (1) Where on an election petition it is shown that—

(b) the election was not conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in Part III (such circumstances being hereinafter referred to as “procedural irregularities”) and such procedural irregularities may reasonably be supposed to have affected the allocation of seats under section 99,

(3) The election shall not be declared invalid by reason of any act or omission by the Chief Election Officer or any election officer in breach of his official duty in connection with the election or otherwise if it appears to the Court that the election was so conducted as to be substantially in accordance with the law relating to the election and that the act or omission may not reasonably be supposed to have affected the allocation of seats under section 99.

(4) The validity of the election shall not be impugned on the ground that the application of any registered voter entitled to apply to vote by proxy so to vote was refused or that the application of any registered voter not entitled to apply so to vote was granted; and such refusal and grant shall be deemed not to be procedural irregularities and notwithstanding any of the provisions of this section the election shall not be declared to be void by reason thereof.

174. At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition the Court shall forthwith certify in writing its determination to the clerk of the local authority and upon any such certificate being given the determination of the Court shall be final; and the Court may in addition to giving the certificate and at the same time, make a special report to the clerk of the local authority as to matters arising in the course of the trial an account of which in the judgment of the Court ought to be submitted to the local authority.

Conclusion of trial of petition.

175. (1) If, on the application of any party to an election petition made in the prescribed manner to the Court, it appears to the Court that the case raised by the petition can be conveniently stated as a special case, the Court may direct it to be stated accordingly and the special case shall be heard before the Court, and the Court shall certify in writing to the clerk of the local authority its determination in relation to the special case.

Case stated.

(2) If it appears to the Court on the trial of an election petition that any question of law requires further consideration by the Full Court, the Court may adjourn the further hearing of the petition or postpone its determination thereon, and reserve such questions by stating a case for the decision of the Full Court, and the Full Court shall have power to hear and decide any question so reserved; and the Court shall determine the petition in accordance with the decision of the Full Court on the question so reserved.

176. (1) All costs of and incidental to the presentation of an election petition and the proceedings consequent thereon, except such as are by this section otherwise provided for, shall be defrayed by the parties to the petition in such manner and in such proportion as the Court may determine; and in particular any costs which in the opinion of the Court have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations or unfounded objections on the part either of the petitioner or of the respondent, and any needless expense incurred or caused on the part of the petitioner or respondent may be ordered to be defrayed by the parties by whom it has been incurred or caused whether or not they are on the whole successful.
