SCHEDULE – Oath of Office

AN ACT to establish the Local Government Commission, as provided for by Article 78A of the Constitution, to provide for the Commission's functions and procedure; and for connected and incidental purposes.

A.D. 2013 Enacted by the Parliament of Guyana:-

PART I PRELIMINARY

Short title and commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Local Government Commission Act 2013 and shall come into operation on a date appointed by order of the Minister.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act –
 “Chairperson” means the Chairperson of the Commission appointed under section 9;
 “Commission” means the Local Government Commission established by section 3;
 “member” means a member of the Commission;
 “public officer” has the same meaning as in the Constitution;
 “Secretary” means the Secretary of the Commission.

PART II
LOCAL GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Establishment of Local Government Commission.

3. (1) There is established a Commission to be called the Local Government Commission which shall be a body corporate.

(2) In the exercise of its functions, the Commission shall not be subject to the direction or control of any authority.

Composition of the Commission.

4. (1) The Local Government Commission shall consist of eight members to be appointed as follows –

- (a) three members appointed by the President acting in accordance with his own deliberate judgment;
- (b) three members, appointed by the President, acting on the Advice of the Leader of the Opposition after consultation with other Parliamentary parties;

LOCAL GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

[No. 18

- (c) one member, appointed by the President, after approval by the National Assembly upon a nomination by the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Appointments from persons submitted by Trade Unions within the Local Government System;
- (d) one member, appointed by the Minister after consultation with Local Democratic Organs.

(2) All appointments shall be made from among persons of unquestioned integrity and with extensive knowledge, where practicable, in local government matters, administration, finance, Amerindian Affairs, industry or law.

(3) A person shall be disqualified for appointment as a member of the Commission if he is a local government officer or if he holds any position in the service of the Government.

(4) An elected member of a local Government organ cannot be a councilor and a member of the Commission at the same time.

Oath of Office.

5. Every member of the Commission shall, before performing any of the functions of his office, take before the President the oath of office in the form set out in the Schedule.

Schedule

Term of office.

6. (1) A member shall hold office for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment on the expiry of the term.

(2) If a vacancy occurs in the Commission for a cause other than the retirement of a member at the expiration of his term of office, the person appointed to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the member being succeeded.

Termination of appointment of members.

7. (1) The President may, subject to subsection (2), after meaningful consultation with the Leader of the Opposition, terminate the appointment of any member for any good and sufficient cause, and in particular if the member —

- (a) becomes of unsound mind or incapable of performing his duties;
- (b) becomes bankrupt;
- (c) is convicted in a court of law for any indictable offence;

- (d) is guilty of conduct inconsistent with membership of the Commission; or
- (e) is absent, except on leave granted by the Commission, from all meetings of the Commission held during two consecutive months.

(2) Before a member's appointment is terminated under subsection (1) he shall be given a reasonable opportunity of making representation.

Resignation of members.

8. A member may resign from his office by letter addressed to the President.

Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson.

9. The Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of the Commission shall be elected by and from the members of the Commission.

Vacancies.

10. (1) If the office of the Chairperson is vacant or the Chairperson is for any reason unable to perform the functions of that office, then the Deputy Chairperson shall act as Chairperson, or if the office of the Deputy Chairperson is vacant or the Deputy Chairperson is for any reason unable to perform the functions of Chairperson, the Commission may appoint one of the other members to act as Chairperson; and the Deputy Chairperson or other member shall act as Chairperson until a person has been appointed to the office of Chairperson and has assumed the functions of that office or, as the case may be, until the Chairperson has resumed the functions of that office, or if a member except the Deputy Chairperson, is acting as Chairperson, until the Deputy Chairperson has assumed or resumed those functions.

(2) If the office of a member of the Commission, except the Chairperson, is vacant or if a member is acting as Chairperson under subsection (1) or is for any other reason unable to perform the functions of a member, a person may be appointed to act in the office of the member and the provisions of section 4 shall apply to an appointment to act as they apply to the appointment of a person to hold the office of the member concerned; and any person appointed under this subsection shall continue to act until a member has been appointed to the office in which the person is acting and has assumed the functions of that office or, as the case may be, until the member has resumed those functions.

Leave of absence.

11. The President may grant leave of absence to a member of the Commission.

Acts valid
despite vacancy.

12. An act, proceeding or meeting of the Commission shall not be invalid by reason of a vacancy in the membership or any defect in the appointment of a member, but if at any time and so long as the number of members acting is less than three, the Commission shall discontinue the exercise of its powers.

Functions of Commission.

13. (1) The Commission shall have power to deal with all matters relating to the regulation and staffing of local government organs including employment and dismissal of staff and with dispute resolution within and between local government organs, and in particular shall –

- (a) monitor and review the performance and implementation of policies of all local government organs, including policies of taxation and protection of the environment;
- (b) monitor, evaluate and make recommendations on policies, procedures and practices of all local government organs in order to promote effective local governance;
- (c) investigate any matter under its purview and propose remedial action to the Minister, whenever or wherever necessary;
- (d) monitor and review all existing and proposed legislation, and or policies and measures relating to local government organs and make recommendations for any legislation or any amendments to any legislation and or policy to the Minister;
- (e) examine and propose ways of enhancing the capacity of local government organs.

(2) The Commission shall deal with all matters relating to staffing of local government organs and in particular shall –

- (a) be responsible for employment, transfer, discipline and dismissal of staff; and
- (b) approve of remuneration, superannuation, training, leave and promotion of staff.

(3) The Commission shall hear appeals instituted by employees who have been dismissed by any local government organ.

(4) The Commission shall hear and determine all matters concerning disputes arising within a local government organ or between any two local government organs.
